The May Play

As Producer, Robin Simmons was unable to cast the play "Time of my Life" by Alan Ayckbourn. The May production will now be one of the Farndale Avenue comedies. We have done a couple of these plays in the past in 1998 and 2002 and both went down well with our audiences - and we found them great fun to do. The title of this Farndale offering is - wait for it -

"The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomens' Guild Dramatic Society's Production of Macbeth"

How's that for a title ?

The comedy play, written by David McGillivray and Walter Zerlin Jnr. will be performed in the Village Hall on 19th, 20th and 21st May at 7.45pm.

Tickets will be available on 01254 878 530

Ticket Prices :-

THURSDAY 19TH ONLY £4.50

FRIDAY 20TH AND SATURDAY 21ST £6.00

Rats 40th Anniversary

Just a reminder to Members regarding the Society's 40th Anniversary in November. If you have any thoughts or ideas on how to we might celebrate this special occasion, please let us know.

MORE - Further News of Former Member

In the February Newsletter to Members we reported that Mark (Leon) Baugh had been nominated for the Best Choreographer Award at the Laurence Olivier Awards to be held on Sunday 13 March. Mark was nominated for this award for his brilliant choreography in the play "Suckerpunch" by Roy Williams.

The good news is that we can now congratulate Mark on WINNING the Best Choreographer Award

Well Done Mark !
